New Year's Day Message

January 2010

Greetings !

Here we are embarking on the New Year, 2010!

When I was a child, for one reason or another, I had somehow come to the conclusion that New Year's Day was our soul's birthday. Every New Year's Day I jumped out of bed to see just how much I had changed since the night before!

New Year's resolutions were something my family did not partake in. Instead, my parents told us that we should make everyday New Year's Day. That every day should be about joy, hope, possibilities, and miracles. That every one of the next 365 days should be full of the champagne of life that we should drink on a daily basis!

One of my mother's favorite quotes was from George Bernard Shaw, "Some people see things as they are and say why? I dream of things that never were and say why not." As I pondered this quote today, I heard a message from Archangel Gabriel, the angel of New Year's Day, "Susan, you were not misguided. New Year's is a rebirth and yes, your soul's birthday. It's a time of renewal."

Archangel Gabriel wants to wish each and every one of you a very Happy Birthday, and to be sure to dream-of-things-that-never-were. Why not?

Angel Blessings & Birthday Wishes to All,

Susan Lynne
